

TRUE EVIL

Based on a true story

Arnfinn Nesset 1977

Gudrun Lauritzen 1977

TRUE EVIL

Norway's worst serial killer of all time.

The two co-writers have unique insight:

- The main character Gudrun is based on one of the authors mother who worked with Nesset
- The exclusive case documents and interviews with the real people involved from having made a documentary on Nesset.

Main Characters:

Gudrun -Gudrun: 19 year old, naive local girl who feels seen and comforted by her boss, Arnfinn Nesset. In realizing and coming to terms with what truly goes on at the nursing home, Gudrun partakes in a perilous journey of self-doubt and danger, before finding the strength to confront the situation.

Nesset - antagonist, administrator of the nursing home, meek and feminine. Revels in his power over the life and death of his patients.

Supporting Characters:

Colleagues at the nursing home

Synnøve: In her early 20s, but astute enough to questions the events at the nursing home and the person who finally exposes Nesset and alerts the authorities.

Annette: Young, bubbly and social nurse who loves her patients and who is horrified when her favorite patient dies unexpectedly. She confides in Gudrun and Synnøve to make them realize that it might be a pattern of murders at the nursing home.

Bodil: The motherly head nurse who is close to Nesset and who is blind to what goes on.

Defense lawyer

Alf Nordhus - Nesset`s second lawyer, powerhouse and bully, notorious and very experienced in court.

Perry - Engaged with Gudrun, musician, kind-hearted but naive, not ready to be a father.

Deputy Gundersen - Best friend to Perry and Gudrun. A young deputy, athletic and eager, and has a grandmother at the home, who Nesset kills.
